WILLIE JOHNSON, is the daughter of the pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church, Rev and Mrs B. B. Johnson, Newark, N. J.

Kellie possesses a dulcet, clear and untrammelled contralto voice with which she has captivated audiences throughout the U.S. in concert as well as Mrs Eleanor Roosevelt and the late President Roosevelt in a command performance.

Lovers of music will have an opportunity to hear her thrush-like voice November 16th, when it is expected she will sing to 500 capacity at Metropolitan Baptist Church, 32 Prince Street, Newark, presented by the Metros Auxiliary.

Her repertoire will include 17th century songs in mixed languages, German Lieder, famous operatic arias, and the ever appealing and immortal Spirituals, giving her listeners full benefit of her magic voice.

She is a graduate of Benedict College, with AB, and M. Y. U. with MA degrees. Active AKA singer, former Morris College, Sumner, S. C. teacher, and at present continues in voice training in New York City.

JOSEPHINE CEPHERS of New Brunswick, vibrant personality, gracious housewife, and mother of brand new Navy man, son Arthur. She demonstrates her love for young people with her many youth groups, as well as Scout activities. Also one of Hudson's favorite daughters, giving time and energy toward promoting I. B. P. O. E. of W.

Her only attendant was her sister Mrs Cecelia M. Calloway. Best man was Donald Roberts of South Orange and usher Maynard Clark, Bayonne, Ralph Fields, Brooklyn. The groom is in US Army, stationed at Ft. Rucker and the couple will make their home in Cleveland, Ohio.

For the reception, a fairy-like setting, the spacious lawn of the Fire 4 Pavilion, Dr. Monclair's, wedding came towering high, flown in from Bermuda, and Old Guard families came to felicitate the happy couple.

SCHOLARSHIP OF $15,000.00
TO CORNELL

Four history making days with Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, August 9-12th, Buffalo, N. Y., Annual Convention.

From all viewpoints a huge success, with $25,000.00 scholarships to Cornell University, seat of origin of the Alpha. Honored guest: "Mother" Singleton, at whose home 50 years ago the first chapter was set up.

From feminine viewpoint: never a dull moment, Bridge-Luncheon, A colored party, Niagara Fall trip, Duke Ellington (Alpha man) Concert and his playing later for 90th Anniversary Ball; an all Greek Letter Dance.

Among Jerseyites, from Morristown the Ernest Stevensons, Paul Cooper, Morris County Urban League executive; from Newark, the Tom Flagg; Jerry Martin; Donald White; Dr. & Mrs. Aubrey Robinson, Madison and Dr. & Mrs. Ferdinand D. Williams of Montclair.

EVENTS

MODERN PIONEER TRANCE

The Modern Pioneer Social Club Inc., extended early thanks to friends with an Appreciation Dance, Sept. 7th at Continental. The happy crowd enjoyed the impromptu conversations at by some of the town's leading stylid of song and dance, as well as the Nat Phipps' orchestra.

Plans are now under way for Jan on New Year's Eve, when Modern Pioneers will invite friends to join in ushering out the Old Year, on 31st of December, again at Continental.

The combined efforts of members, and officers John Rodwell, president, Nathan Ellis, Isaac Thomas and Frederick Garland, made the Sept 7th affair most enjoyable.

SUNSHINE GOLF "BROOKS" THE 19th HOLE

The suburban GOLF Clubship the fairway with long accurate drives, deadly approaches, and spine tingling putts, as they birdied the 18th hole at Terrace Ballroom September 8th in their 5th Annual Dance.

Billy Anderson and his rhythmic appreciation: swing the lifting tunes for dancing pleasure. Theo. Gayle, Granville Saunders, Dr. C. O. Hilton, Leon Williams, Leonard Wilkins and the organization as a whole cooperated in steering the affair to a success far above par.

Members and their families who participated were Mesdames Gladys Robinson, Lois Shortz, Bertha White, Jean Cookson, Ruth Smith, Patricia Jackson, Thelma Humphrey, Thelma Young, Shirley Branch, Louise Harper.

ORCHIDS FOR THE FALL

The Orchids, Inc. took the usual summer leave from their public, but with the Fall will greet a gala crowd in their Annual Fall dance at Irvington House, September 28th.

While quietly shaping their plans some of the members took time out to rest. President Lucille Lewis to Atlantic City; Rita Brown, husband and children off to quaint Wellesfield, Conn. Mirtha Davis relaxed in Belmar, and all the Orchids lay by in the news of Florence Horton's recovery, after illness and hospitalization.

AIR OF CONGENIALITY

The Fraternal Colloquies of New York and New Jersey in their invitation for week-end of July 14th to the 5th Annual Formal and Picnic stated "An air of congeniality pervades and might well have added 'an air of elegance'."

Guests checked in at the palatial Willows Hotel, resented leisurely and then went down to the ballroom for the summer formal. The weekend in a Bar-B-Q culminated at the beautiful Rockefeller Statues at Lakeview Lawrence Road, Treasurer headed the Committee of Arrangements.

CLUB METRO KEEPS IN TOUCH

Although a number of clubs suspend summer activities, and it is the Fall are they learn of each members doings, Club Metro keeps in touch all during the summer, by simply having gala barbecues and picnics together at the homes of the various members.

Other weekends they made up a Theatre Party, and had the pleasure of seeing many Broadway Shows, the most enjoyable in the estimation of all, was the sparkling "Fanny".

EDITORIAL

A WAKEN

Responsibilities are tangible, intangible, obvious and hidden. Our responsibility is service to the organizations and the general public. Truthfully, we are expending ourselves to the utmost in valiant efforts to measure up to our responsibilities.

Similarly, we feel that the responsibility of our readers to our advertisers, although less tangible, is equally valid. Thus we would like to respectfully request that our readers support (perceive) our advertisers.

Obviously, without the support of our advertisers there would be no CLUB WORLD Magazine. As we try to square up to our list of duties, we are confident that our readers will do the same.

CLUB FIDELITY TAKES SUMMER TO PLAN FOR FALL

All-though meetings with planning of summer, ballads, club's fidelity even on the alert to bring a different feature to their public each year in annual dance more than likely for anyone sun-kissed beach planning.

This year October 10th, they aim to "top all other affairs, when they present "HULA-HULA" featuring top-dog Broadway stars at the beautiful Carlton Terrace Ballroom, 600 E. R. M.

BY THE BEAUTIFUL SEA

The Ocean County Spectator, Inc. enjoyed an entire Sunday at the Ocean City Hotel Comfort, operated by Dr. & Mrs. Russell, founder.

Enjoying the dinner and relaxation were the Mrs. Marrow, the Mrs. Sprinkle, the Major Tappan, the Ed Youngs, the Clinton Williams and daughter, the Major Youngs and children, Messrs. J. Jordan, Edna Stokes, and President Arthur Tansvare, with six guests.

COUPLES PINK

The EW's (Wife and Husband) Inc. each took another couple as guests to Morris' own, N. J. Pardon's Dr. own.

Guests included the Edward McCarrillo, the Charles Jenkins, the Albert Foster, the Herbert Tison, the Milton Taylor, the Wm. Johnson.

Members, the James Kings, the Jack Lohary, the Carlton Jackson, the Harry VanDyke, Donald St. Louis, the Joseph Kene, and James Adams.

COLONIAL CRAFT GUILD NEW

OFFICERS CONTINUE DAY WEEK

Open with a new administration some highlights are missing, but the Colonial Craft Guild each elector of new officers continued to provide the same fascinating activities for members and alluring entertainment for friends. A closed party in late Spring was a happy affair. The annual tea is to take place (Upper N. Y. State) in July with dress more than 200 happy guests.

New officers are Frances Allen, President; Gloria Taylor, Vice; Beatrice Collins, Secretary; Albert K. Voinlander, Treasurer.

COCKTAILS AND POPULARITY

The Tea Flamingo, Inc. sponsored a most successful Cocktail Sip and Popularity Contest, Sunday, the 2nd of September at Superior Lodge, TEMPO of W., New Brunswick, N. J.

In Memoriam

MRS. FROY B. LONG of Verona, N. J., July 28th, quit these mundane cares, leaving to mourn her only daughter Mrs. Minnie Pacifico, her grandson Robert Dorsey, eight grandchildren, seven great grandchildren and a host of friends.

Last rites were held at the J. B. Leach Funeral Chapel, Most dearly Rev. D. C. Rice, pastor, Unionville Church, delivering the eulogy and interment at Rose Hill.

MRS. MERVIN A. CHURCHMAN JACKSON, 58 years an Orange, N. J. citizen, and mother of Mrs. Haskell of Los Angeles, California, where for months prior to her passing in the month of June, she had been making her home after a lingering illness. She was laid to rest in the Burial Home of New Jersey, with the Rev. A. Banks Funeral Home officiating, and Rev. Vance McFar coming to her soul to rest.

Aside from her daughter, those left to mourn are sons J. W. Grant, Churchman, J. Esch, Churchman, and scores of friends, including members of her St. John's Chapter #12 O.E.S. of Orange, and Orange-Caldwell Unit of American Legion Auxiliary.

MRS. ANNE M. WILLIAMS of Josiah, N. J., age 78, answered the call into the Great Beyond July 17th. Services at St. Paul's Baptist Church, Elder H. L. Preston, delivered the eulogy.

Mourning her passing are daughters Mesdames Desirée First, and Geraldine Powell, six grandchildren among whom are William Wynne, a mortician of Montclair, and Lt. Col. William Wynne, also nine great grandchildren. Interment was at Glen Dale.

THOMAS (TOM) FULLER, beloved husband of Kate, after an illness which intermittently tried his very strength, but never his gallant and heroic illness that had him hospitalised then up and off to work, only to strike again, breathed his life out.

Leaving to mourn his passing Trustees of Bethany Baptist of which he was a particular and friend to the score. Services were held from the Witham Funeral Home August 19th.

MRS. THELMA MARTIN, beloved mother of Allan of Elizabeth police force, Joan and Harold, wearing the same gallant smile which characterized her nature, despite illness taking its toll over a period of time passed into eternity in May.

Native of Virginia, long a resident of Bayside, beloved by many.

HAVING A WONDERFUL TIME and wish you were here—may be a standard phrase—but truly express a feeling of vacationers from whom we've been drilled to hear—and a summer fades in the wake of June 1st and August—for the most part it leaves lots of exhausted but happy faces.

FAIRY GOD. KING'S LODGE—PARADISE FARMS—SHANGRA-LI and various seashores—happy memories—

SPEAKING OF MEMORIES, let's reminisce about the party tossed by my good friend Trudy Parker, month or so ago, at her picturesque home overlooking the Stevens beauty of lovely Orange Park.

TURNING INTO THE CURVE—CROSS BORDERS DRIVEWAY, were greeted by strains of a real live and smooth combo, entertaining & a lily
